

10 Best and Worst Airports for 2009

Every year Travel + Leisure gathers statistics from the Bureau of Transportation Statistics to rank those 10 airports with the better track-record (10 Best) and those with the 10 Worst record for on-time performance. It is based on flights that departed more than 15 minutes behind schedule from April 1, 2008, to March 31, 2009. Below is how they stacked up.

Best:

1. Salt Lake City
2. Portland (Oregon)
3. Washington DC (tie)
4. Minneapolis/St. Paul (tie)
5. Los Angeles (tie)
6. San Diego (tie)
7. Tampa (tie)
8. Detroit (tie)
9. Phoenix (tie)
10. Orlando (tie)

Worst:

1. Newark
2. Chicago
3. Miami
4. Dallas/Ft. Worth (tie)
5. La Guardia (tie)
6. JFK (tie)
7. San Francisco
8. Dulles (tie)
9. Atlanta (tie)
10. Philadelphia (tie)

The Thos. Moser Building • 415 Cumberland Avenue • Portland, Maine 04101 • 207.874.7400 • 800.874.1743 • fax 207.874.9007

www.hurleytravelexperts.com

VIRTUOSO  SPECIALISTS IN THE ART OF TRAVEL

BCD  travel
affiliate